TIGERS SHOW DETERMINATION TO LICK DRAKE

No Secret Practices—Phelan Is Anxious That Rooters Attend Drills Each Afternoon.

BULLDOGS ARE STRONG

Coaches Make Many Shifts to Fill Holes Left by Gripes of Kansas Aggie Game.

Eleven men wearing the Old Gold and Black striped jerseys of Missouri will battle Drake University Saturday afternoon with a sort of spirit that is hard to beat. Despite the reverse of last Saturday the drills held on Rollins Field this week have shown a determination to erase the defeat by a creditable showing in the remainder of the games to be played.

This afternoon the entire military unit was scheduled to be on hand at the Tiger practice. Coach Phelan has ordered no secret practices as yet this season. It is possible, later on when the Oklahoma and Kansas games approach, that on one or two occasions the public will be barred. But for the time being the Tiger mentor is not only willing but anxious that as many of the students as desire to should keep a close watch on the Bengal unit. By attending practice the rooters can become closer allied to the team, by studying each of the players through scrimmage drill.

Coaches Phelan and Jones hope to complete the heavy work of the week by tomorrow evening, and except for a signal workout Friday evening to give the Tigers a rest for the remainder of the time before the Drake game, Drake will bring a formidable eleven to the Tiger lair and the fact that the Bulldogs have one victory and no defeats to their credit places added importance upon the struggle. Missouri must win to remain high in the Valley race for the championship.

Coach Phelan is pleased with the work of the line-up that he will be able to send against the Des Moines aggregation. Lincoln will not be at his regular position of fullback when the referee's whistle sounds but Humes, who has worked at the job all week, has shown excellent form. The Joplin mauler has been bothered throughout the early season with injuries to his ankles but he is now in almost perfect condition and barring accidents this week will be in condition to put up the game of football Saturday that he is capable of.

For the halfback job, the Tiger coach has several sets that he may use. Packwood and Kerslaw have looked very good in recent games, and the same applies to Bundschu and Knight. Utz, a fast but green halfback, has started in several scrimmages and may possibly break into the fray Saturday. He is unusually fast and has been able to slip away from the Varsity in cell-like fashion several times. Musgrave and W. E. Lewis are other halfbacks ready to see service in the Drake game if they are needed. Schwimmer was switched to a halfback in the drills of the last two evenings and it is possible that he will receive a thorough trial in the backfield in the near future.

Jim Storms tackled an end assignment at the instigation of Phelan last evening. Storms has the stature necessary, and knows football as the youngster knows his A-B-C blocks, and Tiger fans need not be surprised if this husky is sent to an end.

"Doc" Lawler, the genial trainer of the Old Gold and Black tribe, is working wonders with Allen Lincoln as well as with all the other cripples in the Missouri encampment. Lincoln reports for treatment three times each day and the doctor is confident that he will have the fullback in shape for Washington. Lawler has been of invaluable aid to the "Showmen" eleven this fall and it is due to his skill that many of the athletes who have been crippled at one time or another are back in the line-up playing bang-up football.

WITH THE FRESHMEN IN THE TIGER CAMP

The men who are ready to fill in a vacancy during a game are just as important as the men who start the game. A few of the men whom the coaches believe will be called upon next year are: Wesley McAfee, weight 160 pounds, height 6 ft. McAfee claims Brookfield as his home where he played three years on the high school team. Last year he played center on the grid machine of the Lake Forest Academy. He is holding down that position on the second team of the freshman squad here. Stockton Sommer, weight 154 pounds, height 5 ft. 7 and 1-2 inches. "Stock" home is in St. Louis but his football experience was gained on the eleven of the Western Military Academy where he played quarterback for three years. According to the coaches, Sommer is showing up well on returning punts and is fast on the defensive but his offensive work has room for improvement.

Clarence Morris, weight 190 pounds, height 5 ft. 11 inches. Morris is from Denver and attended the University of Colorado last year. He was on the freshman squad there part of the season. Previous to that he played little football and his lack of experience is a handicap. Outside of being a little slow Morris has the physical requirements for a football player.

F. B. Elliot, weight 200 pounds, height 5 feet 11 inches. Elliot comes from Lamar, Mo., and played guard on the high school football team there last year. Elliot is expected by the coaches to be a valuable man when he has had more experience.

WILDCATS ARE WILD OVER TIGERS' DEFEAT

Officers Take Hand When Students Hold Parade, Rush Shows and Raid Stores.

As a result of the victory of the Aggie Wildcats over the Missouri Tigers last Saturday a wild celebration was staged in the streets of Manhattan in which a policeman was beaten, a student put in jail, and windows of the city hall broken out.

A so-called "pop" parade of 1,000 men students after rushing the movie houses raided the grocery and dry goods stores to secure boxes with which to build bonfires. Officer O. L. Strerret attempted to take a hand in preventing the students from violating a city ordinance. Because of his interference he was attacked and beaten. After recovering from his mistreatment he succeeded in seizing the leader of the mob of men and started to jail with him. The students followed the officer and demanded the release of their fellow student, this not being granted, they then turned to drastic measures of further destruction. Windows were broken out of the city hall and other officers egged.

President William Jardine was called and after mixing with the hilarious students for a few minutes succeeded in calming the crowd, but this was not done until the students had secured more bonfires and had built several large bonfires.

The fire department was called out to prevent any danger of the fire spreading into the business section of the town. The students were not satisfied, however with what they had already done, and the fire hose was cut and the firemen threatened.

The authorities of the city are now preparing to prevent another occurrence next Saturday if the Aggies win their game with Kansas University. President Jardine issued the statement that he hoped that the report would not get out that the Kansas State Agricultural College was a roughneck school, and that he could assure the citizens that the students would not participate in such a wild celebration again.

DR. MONILAW'S SON KILLED

Automobile Struck by Train on Way to Football Game.

Thomas Monilaw, son of Dr. William Monilaw, a former director of athletics at the University of Missouri, was one of four Chicago students recently killed in an automobile accident when their car was struck by a train at Milford, Ill.

The students were going to attend the Chicago-Princeton football game Saturday. Doctor Monilaw is at present head of the department of physical education at the University of Chicago.

HOME RUN CHAMPION PROVES TO BE JUST "A COMMON FELLOW"

"What did 'Babe' Ruth do today?" This was the question paramount in the minds of baseball fans in Columbia and throughout the nation during the world's series just closed, until the great slugger was forced to the bench by an infected arm. Probably no one in Columbia was more interested in Ruth's fortunes during the big series than William K. Fox of 664 Sanford Place, for to him the home-run king was not just a personage talked about in the newspapers or seen occasionally on the diamond, but a personal acquaintance.

Fox is a son of C. E. Fox, an engineer on the Centralia branch of the Washburn, and is a former student in the University. He became acquainted with the home-run champion at Boston in 1918, when Ruth was a member of the Boston Red Sox and made his home in that city. Fox was at that time in the naval service and was assigned to the naval radio school operated in connection with the electrical school of Harvard University.

Various residents of Boston threw their homes open for the entertainment of the service men stationed there, and it so happened that Fox and several others were invited to visit at the home of "Babe" and Mrs. Ruth.

At that time Ruth was better known as a pitcher than as a slugger, although even then he ranked among the leading batters of the American League. "I attended all the games of the series played in Boston," said Fox. "I had passed for all three games given me by Ruth. 'Babe' is just a big, everyday, friendly sort of fellow," he said, describing the qualities which have made the Bambino popular in every city where he has played. "He is not a person inclined to brag about himself, but just a likable individual."

NEBRASKA U. MEET NOV. 12

Valley Cross-Country Runners Will Contest at Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb. (By Mail).—The annual Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Cross-country meet will be held at the University of Nebraska, November 12. Invitations have been sent to Missouri Valley institutions to send teams to the meet.

The University of Nebraska has a squad of more than 150 men working out each night for places on the Husker cross-country team. The number is increasing each night and it is believed more than two hundred candidates will be in suits by the time of the first dual meet in which the University of Nebraska will participate.

Walter Williams, '22, is captain of the University of Nebraska team this year and J. Lloyd McManis, Law '16, former Nebraska cross-country runner, is acting coach.

TIGER SUPPORTERS ORGANIZE

Student Body Will Hold Mass Meeting On Campus Thursday.

A mass meeting of the student body will be held on the north steps of Academic Hall at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon to arouse enthusiasm for Saturday's game and to make a spirited football practice.

After a short talk by Max McCann, student president, the students will march out to Rollins Field to watch the Tiger practice. The R. O. T. C. unit may join in the parade. The yell leaders will be present to help in the cheering. This is the first time that there has been organized cheering for the practice games this year.

"Every student who is a loyal Tiger and supporter of the team should not fail to come out and show the team that we are behind them," said Max McCann. The crowd will march promptly to the field and all are urged to stay for the entire practice.

MISS WHITMARSH IS WINNER

She Defeats Louise Allen Easily in Women's Tennis Finals.

Miss Zelle Whitmarsh of Texarkana, Ark., a senior in the College of Arts and Science, won the tennis tournament in the all-class finals, defeating Miss Louise Allen, a freshman in the College of Arts and Science on the women's courts Monday afternoon by a 6-1, 6-1 score.

Miss Whitmarsh was the junior class champion last year and lost in the all-class finals to Miss Martha McLendon, of Kansas City.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT IS ON

Preliminary Rounds Must Be Completed by Tonight.

The University tennis tournament which started last Friday is well under way. All preliminary and first round matches which are not completed by tonight will be judged in default.

New nets have been secured for the two courts which are reserved for tournament play. Contestants should make arrangements to play their matches at once, as they are in charge of the tournament.

Cross Country Run May Be Held

Negotiations are under way to have a cross-country run with Washington University on November 5, the date of the M. U.-Washington football game. The run will be held in St. Louis, if at all, but definite arrangements have not been made. Z. G. Cleveland, athletic director, announced yesterday.

Drake Game Box Tickets on Sale

Box seat tickets for the Drake game, Saturday, went on sale yesterday at Rothwell Gymnasium. The price is 50 cents each. Only a few boxes were sold yesterday so that there are many good seats left.

KEWPIES PLAY MEXICO NEXT

C. H. S. Team, in Good Condition, Will Leave Friday Morning.

The Columbia High School football team will play Mexico Friday afternoon at Mexico. The team will leave early Friday morning on the Washburn and will be accompanied by about thirty rooters.

Coach T. E. "Shorty" Forrester expects the game with Mexico to be one of the hardest of the season. The Kewpies defeated Mexico last year 27-0. This year Mexico has ten letter men back and is reported to be a strong contender for the Central Missouri Championship.

The Kewpies under Forrester's direction are being coached in forward passes this week. The game last Friday with Jefferson City did not put any of the men on the sick list and Columbia will take her best team to the contest with Mexico.

LOW SCORES MADE ON

SUMMER GREENS ARE LIGHT HEART MAKERS

Golf fans are leaving the University links with a light heart resulting from low scores. This has been noticed since a week ago when the keeper once more set the little nine cups back to summer greens. Because of heavy rains during September the players have been using winter greens for the last six weeks.

"Those winter greens have wrecked my score and my usual good nature," a member of the University faculty said, "but since they have put us back on the summer turf I have been able to cut my score eight strokes for the round. It is a grand feeling."

The fairway has been kept free from leaves and is now in good condition. The dry grass makes the course extra fast.

"Greens like a floor, fairway speedy and this bright cool weather! Note my birdies," one fan exclaimed. "They surely don't expect a man to study in golf weather like this," a student murmured as he placed the sand for his tee.

AT THE THEATERS

Hall.

Tonight—Mary Miles Minter will be seen as a cool, resourceful business girl in "Her Winning Way." Miss Minter plays the role of Ann Annington, a young newspaper writer who specializes in interviewing authors and writing literary reviews. She is assigned to get a story from a shy young novelist who dreads of all persons an interviewer. She holds that all's fair in the newspaper game as well as in love and so as a maid in the novelist's bachelor apartments gets her story and his heart as well but the city editor never gets to read copy on Ann Annington's story.

Columbia.

Tonight and Thursday—Tom Mix is the "rough riding, lovable cowboy" that he usually is in all the photoplays in "The Night Horseman." Tom Mix is one of the most realistic actors to screen patrons because he always takes the part of a certain type of man. He is a character more than an actor.

In addition to the picture there will be "Pathe News" and "Topics of the Day" and two acts of vaudeville. A feature of the vaudeville is a midjet.
